Christ Is Born!

MOBC COMMUNITY NEWS!!

November 28 — December 24, 2021

The Pulpit Attire is Purple

The Christian Year opens with the Advent season. Advent means "coming" or "arrival". This season emphasizes expectancy and preparation — expectancy of the coming of Christ and preparation for His coming again. The color for Advent is purple; it speaks of penitence and is associated with Christ as King, purple being a royal color.

Theme For This Quarter:

"JUSTICE, LAW, HISTORY"

The study this quarter focuses on justice as presented in a variety of Old Testament Scriptures. Justice originates in the nature of God and is given to God's people as a gift under the Law. The history of God's covenant people shows that kings who exercised God's justice according to God's Law were considered good kings.

UNIT 1 * "GOD REQUIRES JUSTICE"

This unit has four lessons that explore how leaders of God's people must rely on God's Law as they administer justice. Deuteronomy demands that God's people be just and equitable. In 2 Samuel, king David demonstrates justice by showing kindness to Mephibosheth. Isaiah describes a reign of justice and righteousness. The Christmas lesson shows foreign "kings" representing God's justice more than Israel's own king.

NEXT WEEK'S LESSON:

December 26, 2021

"A Just King Is Born"

Matthew 2:1-12

People look for someone to bring justice in spite of injustice. To whom can people turn to address issues of injustice? The wise men searched and found the King of Justice, Jesus, and worshiped Him.

HOW TO ACCEPT JESUS CHRIST INTO YOUR HEART

Perhaps while reading the announcements you realized you have never made a Christian commitment. Don't delay that decision! We encourage you to embrace God's love today and receive the salvation that only Jesus Christ gives. Here are five simple steps you can take to find assurance of salvation.

1. Recognize your need. The Bible tell us that "all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." (Rom. 3:23) All of us are sinners, and we must admit our need for a Savior.
2. Repent of your sins. Our sins create a wall that separates us from God. By confessing our sins and turning from them, you will find forgiveness. The Bible promises: "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1 John 1:9).
3. Believe in Jesus. God sent His only Son to die so that He could pay for all our sins. Put your faith in Him and believe in His power to save you. The Bible says, "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life" (John 3:16).
4. Receive His salvation. God has given us a great gift in His Son, but we must receive His gift. Thank Him for loving and forgiving you, and ask Him to live in your heart. His promise to us is clear: "But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God" (John 1:12).
5. Confess your faith. The Bible assures us: "If you confess with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved" (Rom. 10:9). You have been born again and are now part of God's family. Tell some one else what Jesus has done in your life!

Heavenly Father, I now understand my need to have my sins forgiven. I also realize that only Jesus — because of His sacrifice on the cross — can forgive my sin. I put my faith and trust in Jesus today. Please forgive me and become the Lord of my life.

CELEBRATING Advent

The Christian Year opens with the Advent Season

Nov. 28, 2021 1st Sunday in Advent - HOPE (Purple) - Romans 15:13
Dec. 05, 2021 2nd Sunday in Advent - PEACE (Purple) - Isaiah 9:6-7
Dec. 12, 2021 3rd Sunday in Advent - JOY (Pink) - Luke 1:46-49
Dec. 15, 2021 4th Sunday in Advent - LOVE (Purple) - John 3:16

December 19th — CHRIST CANDLE (White) — Luke 2:1-7

The light has finally come bringing HOPE, PEACE, JOY AND LOVE to all mankind.

The word Advent means “coming” or “arrival.” The focus of the season is the celebration of the birth of Jesus the Christ in his First Advent and the anticipation of the return of Christ the King in his Second Advent. Thus, Advent is far more than marking a 2,000-year-old event. It is celebrating a truth about God—the revelation of God in Christ, whereby all of creation might be reconciled to God.

Advent also symbolizes the spiritual journey of believers as they affirm that Christ has come, that He is present in the world today, and that He will come again in power.

Advent is marked by a spirit of expectation, anticipation, preparation, and longing. There is a yearning for deliverance from the evils of the world, first expressed by the Israelite slaves in Egypt as they cried out in their bitter oppression. It is the cry of those who have experienced injustice in a world under the curse of sin, and yet have hope of deliverance by a God who has heard the cries of oppressed slaves and brought freedom.

It is this hope, however faint at times, that brings to the world the anticipation of a King who will rule with truth, justice, and righteousness over His people and in His creation.

That hope now anticipates anew the reign of an Anointed One, a Messiah, who will bring peace, justice, and righteousness to the world.

December Health Segment

1. Acknowledge your feelings. If someone close to you has recently died or you can't be with loved ones for other reasons, realize that it's normal to feel sadness and grief. It's OK to take time to cry or express your feelings.
2. Reach out. If you feel lonely or isolated, seek out community, religious or other social events or communities. Volunteering your time or doing something to help others also is a good way to lift your spirits and broaden your friendships.
3. Be realistic. The holidays don't have to be perfect. As families change and grow, traditions and rituals often change as well. Choose a few to hold on to and be open to creating new ones.
4. Set aside differences. Try to accept family members and friends as they are. Set aside grievances until a more appropriate time for discussion.
5. Stick to a budget. Before you do your gift and food shopping, decide how much money you can afford to spend. Then stick to your budget. Try these alternatives:
 - ◇ Donate to a charity in someone's name.
 - ◇ Give homemade gifts.
 - ◇ Start a family gift exchange.
6. Plan ahead. Set aside specific days for shopping, baking, connecting with friends and other activities. Plan your menus and then make your shopping list. And make sure to line up help for meal prep and cleanup.
7. Learn to say no. Friends and colleagues will understand if you can't participate in every project or activity. If it's not possible to say no when your boss asks you to work overtime, try to remove something else from your agenda to make up for the lost time.
8. Don't abandon healthy habits. Try these suggestions:
 - ◇ Eat healthy meals. Have a healthy snack before holiday meals.
 - ◇ Include regular physical activity in your daily routine.
 - ◇ Be aware of how the information culture can produce undue stress and adjust the time you spend reading news and social media as you see fit.
9. Take a breather. Make some time for yourself. Spending just 15 minutes alone, without distractions, may refresh you enough to handle everything you need to do.
10. Seek professional help if you need it. Despite your best efforts, you may find yourself feeling persistently sad or anxious, plagued by physical complaints, unable to sleep, irritable and hopeless, and unable to face routine chores. If these feelings last for a while, talk to your doctor or a mental health professional.
